MEDIA ADVISORY
February 3, 2016

Brooke Henderson, Communications Director
Maryland Association of Community Colleges
(410) 974-8117 www.mdacc.org

Event hashtag: #MDCCsWork

Community College Students to Assemble and Advocate for College Affordability

WHAT:
Student Advocacy Day
Hundreds of students, representing the half million enrolled in Maryland’s 16 community colleges, will assemble in Annapolis and encourage lawmakers to address several years of reduced state funding resulting in significant tuition increases.

WHO:
Several invited representatives from the House and Senate will address students during the rally. Please contact the MACC office, or your local community college, for up-to-date schedules.

WHEN:
Wednesday, February 10, 2016
9:00 – 10:30 a.m.  - Student Rally
Starting at 10:30 a.m.  - Individually scheduled meetings with legislators

Inclement Weather procedures: The event will follow weather-related closing decisions of Anne Arundel Community College (AACC). If AACC cancels school, the event is cancelled, and will not be rescheduled. If AACC opens 2 hours late, Student Advocacy Day activities will start as originally planned, at 9:00 a.m.

WHERE
Miller Senate Office Building, 11 Bladen St., Annapolis, MD 21401 - President’s Conference Room East.

Maryland Association of Community Colleges (MACC) is an advocate for the state’s 16 community colleges and the educational needs of the students they serve.

###