Hundreds of community college students to convene in Annapolis and lobby for college affordability

WHAT:   Student Advocacy Day
Hundreds of students from all 16 community colleges statewide, and representing the almost half million enrolled, will assemble in Annapolis to encourage lawmakers to keep community college affordable.

WHO:    Several Senators and Delegates will address the assembled students.
Confirmed: Senators Ferguson, Young. Invited: Senators Carter-Conway, Jennings, Ready
Invited: Delegates Beidle, Lierman, Hayes, and Washington

WHEN:   Wednesday, February 8, 2017
9:00 – 10:00 a.m.   - Senators and Delegates
10:00 – 10:30 a.m.  - Community college presidents and selected student speaker
10:30 a.m.          - Students meet with their legislators by appointment

WHERE:  Miller Senate Office Building, 11 Bladen St., Annapolis, MD 21401 - President’s Conference Room East.

Inclement Weather procedures: The event will follow weather-related closing decisions of Anne Arundel Community College (AACC). If AACC cancels school, the event is cancelled, and will not be rescheduled. If AACC opens 2 hours late, Student Advocacy Day activities will start as originally planned, at 9:00 a.m.

Maryland Association of Community Colleges (MACC) is an advocate for the state’s 16 community colleges and the educational needs of the students they serve.

###